

Curriculum Vitae

Andrew Philip Campbell

Address	49 Rectory Gardens, Broughshane, BT424LF
Telephone Number	(H) (028) 25861215/ (M) 07832133885
Email	revdrapcampbell@gmail.com
Date of Birth	12 th September 1982
Personal Statement	Andrew is a man of integrity who is an excellent communicator and who excels at building relationships. He is serious-minded yet personable; positive yet realistic; highly motivated yet a loyal team player; focused yet adaptive; driven yet sensitive; inquisitive yet logical and a reflective practitioner.
Principle Priority	To see people grow in their love for God, their love for the Church and their love for their community, developing a mature faith in Jesus Christ and reaching out for him in mission.
Vision	To assist students in developing a theological worldview (God and all things in relation to God) which enable them to think and reflect theologically with a view to Christian discipleship.
Education and training	2010 to 2016: Queen's University Belfast, Doctor of Philosophy. 2010 to 2013: Ordination Training, Church of Ireland Theological Institute. 2009 to 2010: St John's College Nottingham, Professional Certificate in Ministry. 2007 to 2009: Queen's University Belfast, Master of Theology. 2005 to 2007: Queen's University Belfast, qualifying modules for Master Theology. 2001 to 2005: Queen's University Belfast, Bachelor of Arts Second class honours, upper-division, in Ancient History and Byzantine Studies.
Publications	"Perspectives on the Atonement: seeking a way forward", Search Vol 41.3, Autumn 2017 (With Rob Clements) "Justice, Hope, and the Oppressed: Doctrinal Revisions and Subtractions in Nonviolent Atonement Theology and the Hermeneutic of the Other", Churchman Vol 133, Summer 2019 "A Forgotten Voice: The relevance of P.T. Forsyth for the nonviolent atonement debate", European Journal of Theology Vol 29.1, 2020 "Heavenly monotony? A response to philosophical objections to immortality", Search Vol 44.1, Spring 2021 One for the Other: Analytic engagement with Non-violent atonement theology (Working title): Analysing Theology Series, (Cascade Books under contract)
Academic Book Reviews	Restoring the Shamed, Themolis Vol 37.3 , November 2012.

Curriculum Vitae

Andrew Philip Campbell

The Labor of God: The Agony of the Cross as the Birth of the Church,
Themolis Vol 43.3, December 2018.

Teaching Experience

2020- Present: Diocesan Tutor

2022- Present: Visiting Lecturer of Anglican Dogmatics (Church of Ireland Theological Institute/Trinity College Dublin)

Career History

2016 to Present: Rector of the Parish of Skerry, Rathcavan and Newtowncrommlin.

2013 to 2016: Curate Assistant in Bangor Abbey.

2012 to 2013: Deacon intern in the Cathedral Church of St Anne's in Belfast.

2007 to 10: Youth worker in St Nicholas's Church of Ireland, Carrickfergus.
(Part-time 2007-2008, Full- time 2008- 2010).

2007 to 10: Branch Teller for the Northern Bank. (Part-time).

2007: Warehouse worker for 10ofthose.com (Part-time).

2007 to 08: Lay Assistant to the Church of Ireland Chaplain at the University of Ulster Belfast. (Part-time).

2005 to 07: Student Worker in St Patrick's Church of Ireland, Jordanstown and Lay Assistant to the Church of Ireland Chaplain at the of Ulster Jordanstown.

Afflictions

2022- Present: Kirkby Laing Centre Trustee

2022-Present: Kirby Laing Associate Fellow

Diocesan Roles

2017 to present: Member of General Synod.

2017 to present: Dalriada Permanent Commission.

2020 to present: Connor/Down and Dromore Joint Committee.

2017 to present: Connor Diocesan Council.

2020 to present: General Synod Board of Education.

2017 to present: Connor, Down and Dromore Board of Education (for Connor Diocese).

2017 to present: Supplemental member of the Connor Episcopal College.

2014 to 2016: Connor, Down and Dromore Board of Education (for Down Diocese).

Interests

Andrew enjoys spending time with his wife, Allison, son Henry and daughter Charlotte, walking, reading, and detective television shows. His other interests include reading and theological research (He runs an informal research group).