

Hallam J. Willis

hallam.willis@mail.utoronto.ca

+44 7908 930036

EDUCATION

- 2020 – 2022 BPhil in Philosophy (MA), University of Oxford
Thesis Title: The Tragic Perspective: Tragedy and the Coherence of the Moral Supervisor: Prof. Stephen Mulhall
- 2017 – 2020 Honours BA in Philosophy, University of Toronto, St. Michael's College
High distinction
- 2015 – 2017 MA in Theology, McMaster Divinity College
Thesis title: One Language as Another: The Hermeneutic Logic of Translation
Supervisor: Prof. Christopher D. Land
- 2011 – 2015 BTh in Theology, Toronto Baptist Seminary

SCHOLARSHIPS AND AWARDS

- 2020 Academic silver medal for exceptional academic standing, St. Michael's College, University of Toronto
- 2019 Lawrence E. Lynch Scholarship in Philosophy, St. Michael's College, University of Toronto
- 2019 Center for Pastor Theologians. Student essay contest winner, first place
Essay title: The End of Technology and the End of the Church: An Aristotelian and Thomistic Critique of Our Technological Culture
- 2018 First Things Journal. Student essay contest winner, first place
Essay title: Liberalism as a Virtue
- 2018 Brian M. Keenan Prize for the best Canadian undergraduate paper in Philosophy.
Essay title: Good and Irony in the Dialectic of Liberalism
- 2015 T. T. Shields Memorial Prize for strong academic performance, Toronto Baptist Seminary
- 2015 Emmanuel Faith Planters Prize for excellence in writing and showing promise of future publishing, Toronto Baptist Seminary

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS AND ACTIVITIES

- 2022 Cardus Institute
- 2022 Canadian Philosophical Association
- 2022 The International Society for MacIntyrean Enquiry

SELECTED CONFERENCE PAPERS & TALKS

- 2022 “The Tragic Vision: The Role of Tragedy in Iris Murdoch’s Moral Philosophy.” – 10th Annual Iris Murdoch Conference, University of Chichester
- 2021 “Building the City of Freedom: Plato’s Critique of Democratic Freedom.” – Oxford Graduate Conference in Political Theory
- 2019 “The Rationality of Reading according to the Regula Fidei: Alasdair MacIntyre’s Tradition Constituted Reason and Theological Hermeneutics.” – Ontario/Quebec Meeting of the Evangelical Theological Society
- 2017 “The Testimony of the Beautiful: Or, a Theology to Live By.” – The Bingham Colloquium, McMaster Divinity College

TEACHING

- 2022 Guest Lecture: “Paul Ricoeur’s Philosophy of History” Redeemer University, Canada
- 2022 Guest Lecture: “The Soul and the University” Heritage Seminary, Canada
- 2022 Guest Lecture: “Language and Culture.” Heritage Seminary, Canada
- 2021 Guest Lecture: “Inductive Logic.” Heritage Seminary, Canada
- 2021 Guest Lecture: “Language and Culture.” Heritage Seminary, Canada

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- 2022 – Ongoing Associate Fellow at the Kirby Laing Institute, Cambridge, UK
- 2022–2023 Fellow at the Cardus Institute (NextGEN)
- Cardus is a non-partisan, not for profit think tank in Canada
 - As a fellow I participate in professional development as well as engage in the ongoing work of Cardus

- 2016–2017 Research Assistant to Prof. Stanley E. Porter (McMaster Divinity College)
- Coordinated collaborative research with academics around the world
 - Edited material for publication

PUBLICATIONS/WORKS IN PROGRESS

- 2022 (In progress) Jonathan Cleland and Hallam Willis, Peter Martyr Vermigli’s Loci Communes: De Idolatria and Simplex Duodecim Fidei Articulorum Expositio translation into English. Davenant Institute Press
- 2023 (Forthcoming) “The Testimony of the Beautiful: Or, a Theology to Live By.” In The Arts and the Bible. Theological Studies Series. Hamilton: MDC Press.

LANGUAGES

- Modern languages English (fluent), French (reading/conversational), German (reading and basic conversation)
- Ancient languages Ancient Greek, Latin