

Scott David Leveille
scottleveille@gmail.com

Education

Ph.D. (in process, ABD), University of Toronto, Wycliffe College

M.Div., Beeson Divinity School, Samford University (May, 2015)

B.S., Economics – Analysis and Policy, University of Alabama at Birmingham (May, 2001)

Research & Interests

- Doctrine of the Trinity
- Theological Anthropology
- Theological Epistemology
- Apophatic Theology
- Eastern Orthodox Theology
- Vladimir Lossky

Professional Experience

Samford University, Birmingham, AL (August 2023 – Present)

Lecturer – Teaches courses in the Core Texts Program

Covenant Presbyterian Church, Birmingham, AL (August 2021 – July 2023)

Teacher in Residence – Develop Curriculum, Teach in Various Contexts, Train Teachers

Wycliffe College, Toronto, ON, Canada (February 2018 – July 2020)

Residence Don

Covenant Presbyterian Church (April 2016 – September 2017)

Assistant to the Senior Pastor

Shades Mountain Independent Church (March 2002 – December 2013)

College & Young Adult Minister

Church Business Administrator

AmSouth Bank (July 1997 – March 2002)

Management Associate – Wealth Management, Human Resources, and Retail Banking

Publications

“True Knowledge as Perception of and Referral to Divine Action: Reading Hebrews in an Eastern Orthodox Epistemological Idiom,” book chapter in G. Cockerill, C. Bartholomew, and B. Quinn (eds.), Divine Action in Hebrews: The Ongoing Priesthood of Jesus (Grand Rapids: Zondervan Academic, 2023).

Academic Presentations

“Serbian Orthodoxy in the Balkans and Evangelical Christianity in the Southern United States: Origin Narratives and the Oppression of Minorities,” at the 7th Annual Graduate Student Conference on Power and Struggle, the University of Alabama, October 15-16, 2015.

Awards

James Earl Massey Student Preacher Award, Beeson Divinity School (December, 2014)

Teaching Experience

Lecturer, Samford University

- Core Texts 101: the first of a two-semester sequence focusing on classic texts in the Western intellectual tradition, from ancient Greece through Medieval Europe. (Fall 2023)
- Core Texts 102: the second of a two-semester sequence focusing on classic texts in the Western intellectual tradition, from the Protestant Reformation through the twentieth century. (Spring 2024)

Teaching Assistant, Wycliffe College

- Evangelism Remixed: Learning from the Biblical Narratives of Conversion (Fall 2021)
- Systematic Theology II (Winter 2021)
- Intro to Christian Apologetics: The Art and Science of Christian Persuasion (Winter 2020)
- Systematic Theology I (Fall 2019)

High School Teacher, Shades Mountain Christian School

- Taught Economics (Two One-Semester Courses over the 2003-2004 School Year)

Languages

Working knowledge of NT Greek, OT Hebrew, and French (reading)